

We have the right to read closed captions, as we pay taxes to US Government. If you do not understand why we want closed captioning, I suggest you put ear plugs in your ears, lower the volume of your TV set and try to understand what the program is talking all about without the help of closed captioning. We all have the right to have closed captioning.